Rome, Naples, Catania, Valletta, Rhodes, Jerusalem, Haifa, Crete, and Athens!

- Naples - the historical sites, churches, and museums make this city an incredible place to explore. One incredible stretch of Italian coastline.
- Sicily—situated at the foot of the largest volcano in Europe, Mount Etna. Also rich with architecture, medieval castles, theatres and more.
- Valletta - the walled city of Valletta was founded in 1565 by the Knights of St. John and it remains a preserved medieval treasure. It's a wonderful small capital that bursts with stories.
- Rhodes—the friendliest city in the Mediterranean. Home to many historic sites, such as the ruins of the Temple of Venus and the medieval Street of Knights.
- Jerusalem—is one of the world's oldest cities, with history dating back to 4000 BC. Sacred to three of the world's major religions.
- Haifa—this spectacular city rises dramatically from the Mediterranean on terraced hillsides, which culminate with Mount Carmel.
- Chania—a beachcomber's paradise, with some of the finest sands and most inviting waters in all of Crete.
- Athens—now the world's most foremost archaeological playground. The towering columns of the Parthenon still stand in homage to the virgin goddess Athena.
